

Local Fall Harvest

Restaurant Week

Downtown Marquette
November 8-14

Local Fall Harvest Restaurant Week will take place from November 8-14, 2020. As a Downtown Marquette restaurant, you are invited to participate in this exciting event, in partnership with the Marquette Local Food Fest. While there is a recommendation for the use of locally sourced ingredients, there are minimal requirements on participating in this event. There is NO required price point for specials, though we suggest $10-$17 for lunch, $25-$30 for dinner. Take out options are strongly encouraged, though not required. Those who commit to utilizing locally obtained food/products will be eligible for additional advertising from the Marquette Local Food Fest. Lunch and dinner specials must be returned no later than Monday, October 19 to be included in this event.
